

Meet our speaker

Bertice Berry, PhD

Sociologist Bertice Berry, PhD, is a best-selling author and speaker who has appeared on The Tonight Show, Oprah Winfrey, Crossfire, 20-20, PBS's Between The Lions, Comedy Central, CNN and NPR. She has written more than a dozen books and been named Comedian, Lecturer and Entertainer of the Year at different times.

Berry has had her own nationally syndicated television show and uses her talents as a writer and presenter on topics ranging from race and gender, health care, spirituality, transformational leadership and love. She earned her doctoral degree from Kent State University at the age of 26 and still considers her most fulfilling achievement in life as being mother to her five adopted children.

"If you ain't dead, you ain't done," a character in one of Berry's novels says. She isn't done yet either. Berry believes that every one of us has been given a unique purpose, and it is our obligation to find it and use it to improve first ourselves and then those around us.
