

Rotational Requirements for Residency Graduating Class of 2026 and Beyond

Year	Rotation	Blocks
1	FM Orientation	1
	Family Medicine Inpatient Service	4
	Behavioral Health/Newborn Nursery	1
	General Surgery/ENT	1
	Orthopedics/Sports Medicine	1
	Cardiology	1
	Outpatient Pediatrics	1
	Gynecology/Women's Health	1
	Obstetrics	1
	Inpatient Pediatrics	1
	Continuity clinics 1–2 half days per week
2	Obstetrics	1
	Inpatient Family Medicine	2
	Sports Medicine	1
	Litchfield/Plastics	1
	Geriatrics/Palliative Care	1
	COPC/Prevention/ID	1
	Intensive Care Unit	1
	Emergency Medicine	1
	Neurology/Nephrology	1
	Emergency Pediatrics/Nursery	1
	Elective	2
	Continuity clinics 3–4 half days per week
	3	Inpatient Family Medicine	2
		Leadership/PM/Advocacy	1
Outpatient Pediatrics		1
Urology/Pulmonology		1
CQI/Behavioral Health		1
MAT/Pain Management		1
Outpatient Family Medicine		1
Ophthalmology/Dermatology		1
Elective		4
Continuity clinics 4–5 half days per week
Longitudinal Rotations
Professionalism
Clinical Epidemiology
Geriatric Medicine
Health Promotion and Disease Prevention
Human Behavior & Mental Health
Legal & Ethical Issues
Patient Education
Pharmacology
Practice Management
Procedural Skills
Laboratory Medicine
Radiology & Nuclear Medicine
Research & Scholarly Activity
Evidence Based Medicine

Electives

Two elective blocks in PGY2; 4 elective blocks in PGY3. Residents desiring a subspecialty track will be encouraged to complete specific electives.

Anesthesia
Behavioral Health
Cardiology
Endocrinology
Family Medicine
Gastroenterology
Geriatrics
Hematology/Oncology
Hospitalist
Infectious Disease
OB/Women's Health
Outpatient MAT
Pain Management
Patient Education
Plastic Surgery
POCUS
Podiatry
Pulmonology
Research
Sleep Medicine
Sports Medicine
Individually Designed Elective
Wound Care

The program director reserves the right to restrict elective and sub-specialty rotations.