The SIU Opioid ECHO is coordinated by the Department of Psychiatry at SIU School of Medicine. The ECHO aims to create a network of trained providers who will improve access and care for patients with opioid addiction.

Project ECHO® (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes) is a movement to demonopolize knowledge and amplify the capacity to provide best-practice care for underserved people all over the world through three tenets:

MULTIPOINT VIDEOCONFERENCING
BEST PRACTICES PROTOCOL
CASE-BASED LEARNING

BENEFITS OF THE OPIOID ECHO

- Earn up to 8 continuing education credits
- Present your cases to a panel of psychiatrists and addiction specialists
- Learn and interact with experts from your phone, computer or tablet. No need to travel!
- Discuss timely topics, including psychiatric comorbidity, opioid tapering, and pain management.

Funding provided in whole or in part by the State of Illinois, Department of Human Services
